DON'T BE AFRAID TO TAKE A BIG STEP.
YOU CAN'T CROSS A CHASM IN TWO SMALL JUMPS.

David Lloyd George, British Prime Minister
Letter From the Executive Director

And now let us welcome the new year, full of things that have never been.

~Rainer Maria Rilke

You’re already moving at warp speed into this new year. January is one of the two times in the year when we are psychologically most ready to plan and change. This catalogue that you hold in your hand has many fine classes with outstanding instructors who are ready to lift your sights, make you think and help you jump the chasms you confront!

Over the years, BCNM has listened to our customers and thus, offers classes both in a format series and a la carte if you only have time, interest or money for one. As an educator, I like a good series. I like to think that multiple sessions strengthen the opportunity for the participant to apply what is being discussed and ask questions over time that make the lessons fit their experience. But as a busy person myself, I completely understand the constraints of our modern professional life and so, we seek to offer options and flexibility to meet you wherever you are in your needs for professional development.

However, the complex challenges of nonprofit management often require more than a half day’s attention so I invite you to look with favor on three series you’ll find listed in this catalogue. They are distinctive topics, but share a practical approach and a bias for action after you leave the class. One is addressing planning in several dimensions. There is planning at the level of strategy and big picture thinking. The second session unpacks how best to do project management and the third looks at your personal use of time – our truest resource. The most valuable asset any nonprofit has are its people. And yet, human resources in many organizations often fall to the bottom of the ToDo list and languishes for lack of expertise and time. Our second featured series looks at the Brass Tacks of Human Resources – how to interview, hire and productively bring someone new into your workplace, how to provide feedback that helps and if not, how to stay out of court!

We are delighted to have the opportunity to work with the Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council on a series dedicated to strengthening arts organizations as they seek to engage and entice the greatest number of people into their halls and galleries. This series will explore how to build and expand your audience whether it’s for Mahler or Jesiri X. Once you get ‘em there, how can you keep them over time? Cases and examples will help you think through how best to accomplish these goals. The third session will introduce successful shared services available to arts organizations. Although these are aimed at arts organizations, some of you who are seeking to attract the public to your events for environmental groups or other educational programs might learn some provocative new ways to think!

We hope that your schedule and budget will allow you to take a series approach to your professional development in 2012. As all of you know, we believe that none of us is as smart as all of us and dialogue in which we learn from each other is powerful. By being a part of a series, we hope to create an abbreviated cohort model. The Bayer Center promises to provide meaningful content from our excellent instructors – most of whom are community volunteers, generous enough to want to share their expertise with the world. We also intend to see that the content provides opportunity to improve practice – What are you going to do Monday morning? is our constant challenge of relevance. We know that the people you meet strengthen your professional network, teach you something new and bring the possibility of friendship that sustains your courage and resourcefulness as all the new things happen in 2012.
In 2012, we will continue our work generously funded by the Eden Hall Foundation and BayerUSA Foundation on 74%: Exploring the Lives of Women and Girls. Below, I want to share with you a taste of what we’re discovering as we look deeply both at the IRS 990 forms and engage in more than 33 interviews (will be 100 before we’re through!). There is nothing simple about what we’re learning and we are not deceived in thinking that there are easy solutions to these challenges. But what I know for sure is that as a sector, we can do better. I invite your thoughts and reactions to these first findings. We intend to continue our research and our conversations until we stage a major symposium in 2014 at which we will enlist the smartest, most insightful commentators in the nonprofit world to help us better understand how we will do better.

Happy 2012 – keep leaping those chasms and inviting the new with all its peril and possibility, beloveds…and come on over to the Bayer Center to share your stories, learn something new and I hope enjoy a hearty laugh at life when that’s the very best thing to do!

Excelsior!

US Workforce Sectors

The US nonprofit section has more than doubled in size in the past two decades. Between 1991 and 2010, the number of 501(c)(3) organizations increased from approximately 500,000 to more than 1.3 million, including private foundations.

Total employees: 131.1 million; approx. 43% women

THE BAYER CENTER
FOR NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT
AT ROBERT MORRIS UNIVERSITY

Not like anybody else.
We’re part of a university. We live the nonprofit life. We give you the time you need…

These are the things that set us apart, and are why thousands of organizations have come to trust the Bayer Center for Nonprofit Management at Robert Morris University as a comprehensive resource for education, consulting, coaching, research, and hands-on solutions for every aspect of nonprofit management.

Every one of our solutions is a custom solution.
At the Bayer Center, we build a stronger community by helping to build stronger, more knowledgeable nonprofits. We do this through collaboration, patience and relationships…combined with decades upon decades of diverse success experience.

Our approach to education is to stay on top of what’s happening in the sector, plan for what’s going to happen, listen to you, and offer the ever-adapting menu of classes you see described in this catalog.

Our approach to consulting and coaching is, when time permits and circumstances warrant, to enter into a process that builds mutual trust and respect and long-lasting results. And when time doesn’t permit, to help you deal with crisis in the instant and on the ground.

Our approach to thought leadership is to leverage our role as a Robert Morris University Center of Excellence, and to listen to you — through conversations, surveys, research, and community gatherings — to bring together the best thinking on how our sector can most effectively enhance our community.

Your reality is our reality.
Organizations on the front line need realistic solutions. Sometimes that means taking a class. Sometimes it means an in-depth planning process. And sometimes it may mean figuring out how to keep the doors open next month.

In eleven years of service to the nonprofit community, the Bayer Center has completed over 1,000 consulting engagements and educated over 4,500 students. Our consulting clients include human service, arts, faith-based, community development, environmental and education organizations with budgets ranging from $100,000 or less to more than $50,000,000. Our intensive and customized Management, Governance, Financial and Technology consulting services are designed to educate leaders and have resulted in:

- Higher functioning governing Boards
- Enhanced financial planning and management
- Increased partnerships and strategic alliances
- More effective approaches to fundraising
- Better informed, evidence-based decisions for future directions
- More capable nonprofit leaders and organizations
- Effective management information systems
- Heightened brand awareness
- Prudent software choices and website design
- A strategic approach to decision-making

In short, at the Bayer Center, we work with you: To provide effective and practical management and governance tools, information, education and research that strengthen nonprofit missions and multiply all investments of time, talent and money in regional nonprofit organizations.

United Way and Bayer Center Resources
The 2010 Wage and Benefits Survey of Southwestern Pennsylvania Nonprofit Organizations is a crucial tool for filling out the 990. You can access this free resource under the “For Agencies” tab at www.unitedwaypittsburgh.org.

Custom Training
Got a great idea for a workshop? Looking for something that’s not featured in our catalog? Having a tough time aligning schedules to attend a workshop? Custom training may be just what you’re looking for. We can help you set up every aspect of your next staff workshop.

Frequently requested topics include:
- Technology
- Nonprofit finance
- Board development
- Fundraising
- Supervision and leadership
- Staff management

Our extensive experience in conducting workshops can be tailored to your organization’s specific needs. For more information, contact the Bayer Center at 412-397-6000 or bcnm@rmu.edu.

Women comprise a great majority of the nonprofit workforce in Southwestern Pennsylvania. In fact, 74% of those working in the regional nonprofit sector are female. Approximately 225,000 of those 300,000 employed in nonprofits in Allegheny and surrounding counties are women. But wage equity is not a reality for most women working in regional nonprofit organizations.

Through generous support from the Eden Hall Foundation and Bayer USA Foundation, the Bayer Center for Nonprofit Management at Robert Morris University is leading on behalf of women in the nonprofit workforce through research and education to promote change in this picture. A “Kitchen Cabinet” consisting of over 125 leaders in the private, public and nonprofit sectors has been formed to guide new research efforts on the lives of women in nonprofits, to ask hard, relevant questions, and to distill knowledge into action. And we intend to engage the power of 74% to do just that.

In order to continue to pursue our multi-faceted research on this topic through education, we offer these classes and others which will speak to the on the ground reality faced by both women and men in the nonprofit sector.

A “Love Note” to Women of the Nonprofit Sector

Tuesday, Feb. 7 from 3–4:30

You are cordially invited to join us as we re-convene to discuss new findings in our ongoing research project, “74%: Exploring the Lives of Women Leaders in Nonprofit Organizations.” We have conducted over 30 interviews and have found some interesting patterns that we would like to test with your own experiences. Join us for tea, dessert and sandwiches while we continue to work on becoming a community movement and make some noise!

Fee: $15
Location: The Rivers Club, 301 Grant Street, Downtown

Exploring the lives of women leaders in nonprofit organizations

Working Across Generations ▲

Friday, April 13 from 9 a.m.–noon

Each generation shakes its head in wonder at every other one. But the truth is that our generational diversity can be the source of great creativity and collaborative richness. Bring multiple staff to this session as we “cross the ages” and look at ways to work with and serve our youngers and our elders most effectively. This class is always fun as we explore the cultural and personality quirks that define the times in which we were born.

Instructor: Scott Leff, Bayer Center
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Making the Job You Have ▲ the Job You Want

Friday, May 4 from 9–11 a.m.

Do you feel “stuck” in your current nonprofit position? Though Pittsburgh’s nonprofit sector is large and vibrant, most nonprofits are small, leaving little room for career advancement. But that doesn’t mean there isn’t room to be challenged! Come and hear from both nonprofit employers and employees who have been able to get creative in order to stay stimulated and happy without having to change jobs.

Instructors: Diana Bucco, Forbes Funds; Rebecca Lucore, Bayer USA Foundation; Juliana Shayne and Carrie Richards, Bayer Center
Fee: $40 ($30 if paid online)

Leadership Breakfast

Friday, Jan. 27 from 8–10 a.m.

Susan Egmont, author of Managing Leadership Transition for Nonprofits: Passing the Torch to Sustain Organizational Excellence, will lead a discussion of the challenges and opportunities inherent in leadership transition. As we continue to talk to both women and men in the nonprofit sector as part of our ongoing 74% research, we find this issue to be of great concern for the nonprofit sector as it greatly affects the lives of the retiring staff, younger staff hoping to move up into leadership positions, the Board as they plan for the future, and the organization as a whole. Join us for breakfast at The Rivers Club as we look at this issue together under Susan’s leadership and expertise.

Sponsored by Horovitz, Rudoy and Roteman.

Fee: Free, but registration is required

Location: The Rivers Club, 301 Grant Street, Downtown

Human Resources Roundtables

Fourth Wednesday of the month from 8–9:30 a.m.

A nonprofit’s greatest asset is often its staff, and managing, inspiring and ensuring a healthy work environment is key to achieving results. HR Roundtables offer a monthly peer-learning forum for discussing difficult issues. Each roundtable will lead off with a short presentation by ESC volunteers, and then be followed by open discussion

Fee: $10 each

What isn’t nonprofit management? At the Bayer Center, we view nonprofit management as a holistic quilt that weaves together diverse and mutually supporting skills from governance to fundraising to financial analysis to technology to marketing to forming partnerships and alliances. Put them all together and what you have is a strategic approach to decision-making that accounts for human needs and organizational sustainability. The following classes will help you learn the techniques; our coaching and consulting services will help you put them into practice.

Some of the ways we assist organizations are:

- Performing comprehensive organizational assessments
- Facilitating inclusive planning processes that adapt to an evolving definition of needs identified in the course of planning
- Recommending and exploring opportunities for partnerships and collaborations
- Creating fund development plans that reflect donor realities
- Researching and performing environmental scans that clarify the organization’s position within its service and competitive landscape
- Offering professional coaching to nonprofit leaders

Breaking Out of the Groundhog ▲
Day Loop: Managing Change When Change is Difficult
Thursday, Feb. 2 from 9 a.m.–noon

In the award-winning motion picture Groundhog Day, actor Bill Murray's problem was that each day when he woke up, things were exactly the same. Have you ever felt that your organization can't get out of its rut? Are you stuck waiting out “six more weeks of winter” every time you wish for change? This Groundhog Day, the Bayer Center offers hope. Getting actual humans to change their thought patterns and work habits can feel impossible, but it’s not. Usually, it’s only difficult. Using Chip & Dan Heath’s framework from their bestseller Switch: How to Change Things When Change is Hard, this session will give you new perspectives on how to help new behaviors take hold, spread and last in your organization.

Instructors: Jeff Forster and Garrett Cooper, Bayer Center
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Effective Presentations ● ◆
Tuesday, Feb. 9 from 9 a.m.–noon

There are few things more horrible than losing your audience. A narrative that lacks a human touch or audience interaction can contribute to wandering attention. In this workshop, we’ll focus on planning and executing a presentation with the specific goal of improving your audience’s level of knowledge and interest in your topic. We’ll discuss that optimal blend of facts and stories that make the experience memorable. Whether public speaking tops your list of fears or you want to take your presentation skills to the next level, this workshop will enhance your ability to present information in a way that engages your audience and moves them to action.

Instructor: Jeff Forster, Bayer Center
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Planned Giving: ●
The Basics
Wednesday, Feb. 15 from 9 a.m.–noon

Fundraisers are often paralyzed by fear of the technical and legal details of planned gifts and leery of talking to donors about a gift that involves their death. This session offers simple ways to incorporate planned giving into your fundraising program immediately. Learn why planned giving is important for every development program and how planned giving can improve donor relationships and increase dollars raised – even during tough economic times. Participants will leave this session armed with the information and inspiration to convince themselves, as well as their boss and Board that they are ready to start. A useful follow-up to this class is Planned Giving: Beyond the Basics.

Instructor: Maureen Mahoney Hill, CFRE
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $115 ($100 if paid online) for both classes

Customer Service Essentials ▲ ●
Wednesday, Feb. 22 from 6–9 p.m.

Customer Service is the unsung hero of any organization’s successful marketing plan, and it takes the right combination of communication, collaboration, conflict management and problem solving skills to create a customer-centric culture. This course will provide front-line, supervisory or management staff with practical tips and tools to build relationships with new or existing customers, solidify the loyalty of wavering customers, and help recover defecting customers to your mission.

Instructor: Joyce Lewis-Andrews, ESC Volunteer
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Planned Giving: ◆
Beyond the Basics
Wednesday, Feb. 29 from 9 a.m.–noon

Are you and your Board ready to move beyond bequests? In this session, we’ll explore more complex types of planned gifts including charitable gift annuities and charitable trusts, and we’ll learn how partnering with allied professionals in the community can expand your planned giving program. We’ll dig into your donor base to identify potential planned giving donors and learn to match particular gift options with the needs of your donors. This course is designed as a companion course to the session, Planned Giving: The Basics.

Instructor: Maureen Mahoney Hill, CFRE
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $115 ($100 if paid online) for both classes

JANUARY–MAY 2012 COURSE CATALOG
BRASS TACKS
FOR HUMAN RESOURCES
If your organization is like most nonprofits, you do not have an HR Certified staff member managing the HR function – you have an “accidental” HR manager. This series will help you build your HR knowledge and keep you current on new laws and best practices.

Interviewing, Hiring ▲
and Onboarding
Wednesday, Feb. 22 from 9 a.m.–noon
The onboarding process is a critical transition component for staff hired into a new work environment. It includes more than a cursory “orientation” that involves a tour, technology set up, and an offer to “let me know if you need help.” Research shows that if you provide your employees with a proper onboarding experience, they are 70% more likely to stay for over 3 years. Good onboarding systems simplify the new hire process, expedite day-one readiness, drive engagement, improve retention and increase productivity.

Instructor: Juliana Shayne
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

Praises With or Without Raises ▲
Wednesday, March 7 from 9 a.m.–noon
If you are not in a position to provide salary increases, what are some ways to reward employees with little or no cost? If your budget does provide for increases, how do you link those increases to performance to get the most “bang for the buck?” Spend the morning with us and learn different ways to say “thank you” to your top-notch employees through creative incentives and rewards.

Instructor: Ray Frankoski, ESC Volunteer
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

Staying Out of Court ▲
Wednesday, March 21 from 9 a.m.–noon
What do you absolutely need to know as a nonprofit employer? Learn the basics of employment law to avoid costly employee litigation, no matter the size of your organization. We’ll provide an overview of Anti-Discrimination Laws and legal aspects of the disciplinary process and terminating employment, furloughs and layoffs as well as handling unemployment claims, creating severance packages and mediating legal conflict.

Instructor: Sally Griffith Cimini, Leech Tishman
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

Presentation Visuals that Work ●
Thursday and Friday March 1–2 from 10–11 a.m.
Bullets are not only dangerous in guns. Although your presence and preparation make a huge impact on the success of a presentation’s ability to inform and persuade, bad visuals can undermine your message. In fact, PowerPoint itself may have taught us bad habits. This class will help you create visuals that will make your facts, stories and ideas stick with your audience.

Instructor: Jeff Forster, Bayer Center
Fee: $40

Powering Up Your Donor ◆
Database
Thursday, March 8 from 9 a.m.–noon
Get more out of your fundraising records through creative, insightful analysis. This interactive workshop will lay out manageable steps for moving from database management to database marketing. We’ll cover what to put in and what to pull out of your database. We’ll map out action plans for real-life scenarios. Also, you’ll take away the nine questions that will start your database analysis.

Instructors: Janet Emery, CFRE, J. Emery Consulting, Jeff Forster, Bayer Center
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)
AUDIENCE DEVELOPMENT AND ENGAGEMENT FOR ARTS ORGANIZATIONS

This series will look at the questions of attracting and retaining audiences for arts organizations across the spectrum, beginning with the question of how to reach new audiences and then moving to audience retention. We will conclude with a look at how partnership and collaboration can help all organizations expand their reach and impact. Led by Andrew Swensen, additional presenters will include Marc Fleming (Pittsburgh Cultural Trust), Mark Power (City Theatre), and David Seals (Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council).

Audience Development
Tuesday, March 13 from 9 a.m.–noon

The mission of an exhibiting, presenting, or performing arts organization is to deliver great art to an audience, serving both the art form and the community. This session will focus on the desire to expand audiences, for the benefit of the art and the sustainability of the organization. We will discuss case studies in audience development, featuring nonprofits from multiple sectors, sizes and budgets, and then consider the costs and benefits of these various initiatives. Finally, we’ll evaluate outcomes in terms of mission fulfillment and expanding earned revenues and individual donor base through audience growth, and conclude with a creative session on how to apply the day’s learning to participants’ current situations.

Instructor: Andrew Swensen
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

Audience Engagement
Tuesday, March 20 from 9 a.m.–noon

Once you have attracted someone to your venue or to a performance, how does that attendee become a long-term patron? In examining audience engagement we will look at that evolving relationship of audience members as they begin to take ownership in an organization by becoming members, subscribers, and/or donors, ultimately translating an encounter into a relationship. The structure of the session will begin with case studies considered individually and then move to brainstorming creative solutions for current situations faced by session participants. This session will expand on the previous “Audience Development” session, though either can be taken individually.

Instructor: Andrew Swensen
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

Strategic Partnerships and Expanding Your Reach
Tuesday, March 27 from 9 a.m.–noon

Arts organizations seeking to improve audience outreach and engagement can find substantial impact in creating partnerships. Benefits include increased internal efficiencies in managing and expanding communication and reaching high-value audience prospects at substantially less cost. Yet, cooperative endeavors have their challenges and must be created wisely. This session will examine different levels of strategic partnership ranging from cooperation on a single project to full mergers. We will identify the potential benefits and challenges, discuss case studies, and workshop potential partnerships that participants can explore in their own work.

Instructor: Andrew Swensen
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

So You Wanna Be a 501(c)(3)?
Monday, March 19 from 6–9 p.m.

Setting up a 501(c)(3) involves a lot more than creating your website, opening your doors to clients and starting to fundraise. It’s a tricky and costly process, and might not be the best choice right now. Learn about the incorporation process and alternatives that may be more appropriate, as well as nonprofit governance and management issues and requirements. You’ll leave this class with information, homework and a template to guide you through the next steps.

Instructors: Yvonne VanHaitsma, Bayer Center; Bob Moll, ESC Volunteer; Jack Owen, Rhoades & Wodarczyk, LLC
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Becoming a Supervisor: Achieving Productivity Through People
Friday, March 23 from 9 a.m.–4 p.m.

Learn key strategies for building a productive team by developing appropriate boundaries, enhancing your skills for delivering bad news, giving and receiving feedback, dealing with conflict, and communicating with staff with different personality types based on your own style of leadership. We’ll look at the advantages and skills of using a coaching perspective when working to improve performance or to encourage your best team member. You will be asked to bring real challenges you’re facing for targeted application. This class is geared to new managers — especially those going from peer to supervisor!

Instructors: Barbara Pryor, ESC Volunteer; Wendy Hardman
Fee: $125 ($115 if paid online)

Developing Logic Models for Program Planning and Evaluation

Wednesday, March 28 from 9 a.m.–4 p.m.

Logic models are the gold standard of program development and service evaluation among nonprofits and their funders. How do you know that you’re meeting your goals? Are you sure you’re reaching the right constituents? In the morning, you’ll learn to create a logic model for your program that helps you plan and evaluate, and provides your funders with the information they want, too. In the afternoon, learn how to work with indicators and develop a data collection plan to get the best information about how well your model is working and where it may need improvement.

Instructors: Maria Zeglen Townsend, Ph.D., Townsend Associates LLC; Sheila Bell, Allegheny County Department of Human Services

Fee: $125 ($115 if paid online)

Working with the Media ●

Thursday, March 29 from 9–11 a.m.

Every nonprofit needs the media to get its message out. Nonprofit leaders require insight into that world. Join three Pittsburgh media writers and editors who are longtime friends of our nonprofit community as they discuss techniques for creating and maintaining those valuable relationships. We’ll have plenty of time for Q & A.

Instructors: Peggy Morrison Outon, Bayer Center; Tracy Certo, Pop City; Bill Zlatos, Pittsburgh Tribune-Review; Joyce Gannon, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Fee: $40 ($30 if paid online)

Get Your Stories Straight/ Ready for My Close-Up!

Thursday, April 12 from 9 a.m.–4 p.m.

A new twist on a class we’ve offered before! Arm yourself and your staff with the material that will come in handy when it’s time to introduce people to your mission and story. This workshop will help you craft your tagline, one-sentence overview, an emblematic story you can tell in 15 minutes and a more detailed half-hour presentation that is sure to make sure your audience remembers what you want them to remember. After we talk through these four key communication tools for your organization, the Bayer Center’s friends from Pittsburgh Community Television (PCTV) will videotape you delivering one of your organization’s stories. You’ll be able to see how you look on camera. As a group, we’ll workshop your story and your delivery. You’ll take the raw footage of your story with you.

Instructor: Jeff Forster, Bayer Center

Fee: $125 ($115 if paid online)
NONPROFIT PLANNING: FROM THE BIG PICTURE TO THE ITTY BITTY DETAILS

When working in a nonprofit, it’s common to have to wear multiple hats…but how do you keep them all on straight? Join us for this three-part series on effective planning from big-picture strategic planning all the way down to the everyday itty bitty details.

Setting Strategy and Priority
Tuesday, April 17 from 9 a.m.–noon

This class will present the principles of effective planning. It’s important that organizations have high quality, focused and comprehensive conversations about their future. By using pertinent questions and planning frameworks, participants will be able to understand how to conduct a comprehensive plan. Those who have a plan that may now feel out of date can learn some key questions to refresh their plan. And for those who lack the time to do a comprehensive plan, this session will discuss how to select key questions for examination.

Instructor: Peggy Morrison Outon, Bayer Center

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

Moving from Strategy to Project
Tuesday, May 1 from 1–4 p.m.

Effective implementation is often based on good action planning, communication among team members and clear direction, timelines and accountability. Facilitating complex projects is difficult to manage. Learn the basic strategies behind successful project management, some technology applications that are useful, and some stories from the street on what works well.

Instructors: Kevin Sweeney and Joe McLaughlin, ESC Volunteers; Doug Van Haitsma, Mon Valley Initiative

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

Keeping it Together Without Coming Apart
Wednesday, May 16 from 9 a.m.–noon

Are your workload and your life load out of control? Do you procrastinate on tasks because you don’t know where to start? Here’s the good news: personal organization is a skill that can be learned, just like swimming or riding a bike. You’ll leave this class with strategies that will help you get organized, reduce stress, increase your productivity and effectiveness, and start enjoying your work and life more!

Instructor: Cindy Leonard, Bayer Center

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $125 for the entire 3-part series

Crisis Communication: ● What to Say When You Don’t Know What to Say
Wednesday, April 18 from 9 a.m.–noon

Led by the principals of one of the region’s top media consulting firms, this interactive workshop prepares nonprofit spokespersons to react appropriately to the media in good times and in bad.

You’ll learn:
- Time-proven techniques to guide media interviews
- The five commandments of media relations
- How to develop your message
- Mock radio interviews reinforce what you learn

Instructors: Sheila Hyland Yencik and Debbie Foster, FosterHyland and Associates

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Writing a Good Press Release... ● and How to Sell It
Tuesday, April 24 from 1–4 p.m.

The daunting task of writing a press release does not have to feel so scary. Then, there’s the call to the media about getting it run! This discussion will center on the proper way to write a press release and talk with the media to work toward having it placed. We will take the fear out of the process together.

Instructor: Suzi Neft, Suzi Neft Promotes

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)
Video Success for Nonprofits

Wednesday, April 25 from 9 a.m.–noon

Video is fast becoming an essential tool for nonprofits. If a picture is worth a thousand words, then an engaging video about your organization is worth a million. Nothing tells your story better than a well-produced video production. Set yourself apart from other nonprofits by learning how to use video to cost-effectively promote your organization and bring in much needed dollars to support your mission. Learn how other organizations in the area have done it and how you can too.

Instructor: Carl Cimini, Pittsburgh Community Television

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Presenting to a Funder

Monday and Tuesday, May 14–15 from 10–11 a.m.

Although presentations of any kind can make us nervous, presenting to a funder creates a special kind of anxiety. That’s all the more reason to hone your material (what you’re going to say) and your packaging (your visuals and the documents you’ll leave with the funder) for maximum impact. This webinar will drill down from general principles about presenting effectively to focus on enlisting investment support from a funder.

Instructors: Peggy Morrison Outon and Jeff Forster, Bayer Center

Fee: $40

Pinpoint Planning Clinic

60-minute sessions available by appointment

Tired of spending too much time and precious resources trying to figure out how to best improve your nonprofit? Consider using PinPoint Planning™, a tailored and time-limited approach that provides quick analysis of critical operations in the following areas: finances and financial management, fundraising, human resources, legal issues, governance and technology.

Each PinPoint Planning™ tool is a type of audit that will take organizations about an hour to complete. It provides executives and Boards with concrete information about practice gaps so that they can focus resources on specific areas needing improvement instead of a complete overhaul.

Organizations receive an internal assessment to complete and return. The Bayer Center will assign an ESC volunteer from the relevant field to review your materials and then meet with you for a working session. After your face-to-face meeting, you’ll receive a report containing a number of concrete, actionable suggestions to enhance your current operations.

This program was developed by the Bayer Center for Nonprofit Management in partnership with the United Way of Allegheny County.

Instructors: ESC Volunteers

Fee: $50 per hour

SAVE THE DATE!

Thursday, May 24 is Nonprofit Banjo Night!

Start your Memorial Day weekend off with a TWANG! with a night of live music, nonprofit games, dinner, a (cheap!) cash bar, and good times to boot! The “surprisingly hip” Pittsburgh Banjo Club (as deemed by Pop City) plays music that is classic Americana - Dixieland and Pop from the 20s and 30s, as well as the occasional polka. Dancing and singing along is highly encouraged. Don’t miss this Bayer Center fundraiser at the Allegheny Elks Lodge #339 on the North Side — just a short walk from downtown!
Storytelling Clinic

60-minute sessions available by appointment

Stories that capture the essence of your organization’s mission can be powerful tools for enlisting support. If you know that your organization does great work but you lack those two or three stories that help to explain it to outsiders, come work on your stories with one-on-one structured help. Although storytelling is a creative act, all good stories have specific ingredients. An outsider to serve as guide and first audience can hone your stories into compelling tools in your communication strategy. Note: This clinic may be done by phone if travel proves inconvenient.

Instructor: Jeff Forster, Bayer Center
Fee: $50 per hour

Marketing Clinic

60-minute sessions available by appointment

In this clinic, we’ll review your current marketing strategy and materials, and give you advice about where you should focus your energy to align with your mission, customers, and needs.

Instructor: Dorothy Hufford, ESC Volunteer
Fee: $50 per hour

Emerging Organizations Clinic

60-minute sessions available by appointment

Thinking of starting a nonprofit? We’ll give you one-on-one guidance with the next steps — whether it is more research, looking into fiscal sponsorship, or reviewing an exemption application. We’ll guide you through different options and the decision-making process.

Instructor: Dorothy Hufford, ESC Volunteer
Fee: $50 per hour

Employee Handbook Clinic

60-minute sessions available by appointment

Is your employee handbook up to date? Does it include all the vital elements? Does its wording comply with wage and hour laws? Is it truly the employee information source that you would like it to be? We can help you get the answers to these questions and help you to modify and update your employee handbook as needed. During the clinic, we will do a complete review of your handbook and point out the sections that are missing or require revisions.

Instructor: Ray Frankoski, ESC Volunteer
Fee: $50 per hour (Due to the complexity of this topic, a 2-hour minimum is required)

Ask an Attorney Clinic

60-minute sessions available by appointment

Remember the good old days? Things were easier, less transparent, with fewer surprises. Now you have reason to be nervous about signing that lease. What does that insurance policy really cover? Are your personnel practices a lawsuit waiting to happen? Take advantage of affordable, one-hour consultations at LawLinks’ Ask an Attorney clinics. Meet one-on-one with an attorney after work and discuss legal issues that concern you, like:

- Confusing “legalese” and contract terms
- Employment law and whether your organization’s policies and procedures are compliant
- Protecting your organization against lawsuits
- Trademark and copyright protection

Instructor: Varies
Fee: $50 per hour

Presentation Clinic

60-minute sessions available by appointment

There is always room to improve the visuals that we use to aid our presentations. Get one-on-one help to make that presentation sing. Clinic can be used for step-by-step instruction on particular techniques (e.g. formatting, animation, incorporating media) or to workshop an existing presentation for ways to punch up its informative and persuasive power.

Instructor: Jeff Forster, Bayer Center
Fee: $50 per hour

HR Clinic

60-minute sessions available by appointment

Do your HR policies need updating? Is expansion requiring more staff and more new job descriptions? Are you facing layoffs, or do you have a pregnant staffer and no maternity policy? We can help you with these and other issues including:

- Creating better performance appraisals
- Improving employee relations
- Restructuring benefits and compensation

The session is for any staff person with HR oversight. Bring your materials including employee handbook, performance appraisal form, and anything else HR-related to your appointment.

Instructor: Ray Frankoski, ESC Volunteer
Fee: $50 per hour

Good governance is core to every organization’s effectiveness and results. As an enhancement to our BoardsWork! program to train and match skilled Board members with BoardsWork! Award agencies, we are offering this slate of governance classes. Do your Board members know what questions to ask to provide strategic direction while leaving you room to manage? Do you know how to work with your Board members to help them feel fulfilled and passionate about their volunteering? Attend these classes together and smooth the road for your shared journey.

Demystifying Financial Statements
Wednesday, Feb. 8 from 9 a.m.–noon

In this overview webinar for people with little knowledge of financial statements, we’ll examine the key reports that reveal the economic health of your organization. By the end, you’ll begin to know how to use all those “meaningless” numbers to really help with critical management decisions and fundraising requests.

Instructors: Scott Leff and Garrett Cooper, Bayer Center
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Boardsmanship Basics
Friday, Feb. 24 from 9–11 a.m.

While this class is called “basics,” we’re invested in seeing that Boards are high functioning engines of opportunity for their nonprofits. We’ll provide an overview of effective nonprofit governance including role clarity, what is expected of the Board by each other as well as the IRS and funding communities, how best to compose a new or revitalized Board, statement of expectations, and Board evaluation.

Instructor: Peggy Morrison Outon, Bayer Center
Fee: $40 ($30 if paid online)

The Board’s Report Card
Thursday, March 22 from 9 a.m.–noon

Is it possible to evaluate Board members without insulting them? You bet it is – it’s one of the healthiest exercises a Board can do to keep functioning at the highest level. This interactive class will focus on getting Boards to look at themselves both as a group, and as individual Board members, starting with Board job descriptions which set up expectations and provide a starting point for evaluation. We’ll share various types of assessments so you can create what is best for your own Board.

Instructors: Lulu Orr, Bayer Center and Don Block, Greater Pittsburgh Literacy Council
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Boards and Fundraising
Wednesday, April 11 from 1–4 p.m.

This interactive seminar will explore the inherent tension in any nonprofit between Board and staff roles and offer thoughtful insights about why each stakeholder must understand and accept his or her defined role. We’ll provide practical tips on how to communicate clearly between Board and staff about this central and challenging issue. Open to staff or Board members, but most effective when an agency can send both!

Instructor: Dave Brewton, Coalition for Christian Outreach
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Board Governance and Fraud Prevention Issues
Tuesday, April 3 from 9 a.m.–noon

Theft or fraud committed against a nonprofit can have significant adverse impact on the organization, beyond the direct dollar amount of the loss. The current environment of heightened fraud awareness, nonprofit organizations can and should take affirmative steps toward fraud prevention and deterrence. This session will focus on the role of the Board of Directors of a nonprofit corporation with respect to fraud prevention and Board governance.

Instructors: Karl A. Jarek, The Nottingham Group, LLC and Janice Smith, Cohen & Grigsby
Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Bylaws Clinic
60-minute sessions available by appointment

Bylaws are important in directing the Board and the organization. Due to recent changes in the 990 legislation, many nonprofits’ bylaws are not in compliance with best practices. During this clinic, we will review your bylaws, give you suggestions for improvements, and guide you on how to discuss these with your Board.

Instructor: Sue McLaughlin, ESC Volunteer
Fee: $50 per hour (Due to the complexity of this topic, a 2-hour minimum is required)
Demystifying Financial Statements

Wednesday, Feb. 8 from 9 a.m.–noon

In this overview for people with little knowledge of financial statements, we’ll examine the key reports that reveal the economic health of your organization. By the end, you’ll begin to know how to use all those “meaningless” numbers to really help with critical management decisions and fundraising requests.

Instructors: Scott Leff and Garrett Cooper, Bayer Center

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

If numbers were your favorite thing, you probably wouldn’t have gone into nonprofits. But finance doesn’t have to be scary, and it doesn’t have to be hard. The Bayer Center’s focus in our financial consulting and classes is always on the practical. We’re pretty good with the numbers, but we’ve lost count of how many clients have told us that we made accounting understandable for the first time. Whether we’re with you in a 3-hour class or working as your consultant, our goal is to help you use your finances as a tool for managing your organization and delivering your services more effectively. Clarity is our business.

Some of the ways we assist organizations are:

- Analyzing financial performance ratios to identify areas of concern and aid in management decisions
- Clarifying cost allocations to determine how individual programs contribute to the bottom line or require subsidization
- Educating Boards on what to monitor in financial reports and how to interpret the data
- Considering financial issues in strategic decision-making

Planned Giving: The Basics

Wednesday, Feb. 15 from 9 a.m.–noon

Fundraisers are often paralyzed by fear of the technical and legal details of planned gifts and leery of talking to donors about a gift that involves their death. This session offers simple ways to incorporate planned giving into your fundraising program immediately. Learn why planned giving is important for every development program and how planned giving can improve donor relationships and increase dollars raised – even during tough economic times. Participants will leave this session armed with the information and inspiration to convince themselves, as well as their boss and board that they are ready to start. A useful follow-up to this class is Planned Giving: Beyond the Basics.

Instructor: Maureen Mahoney Hill, CFRE

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)

Planned Giving: Beyond the Basics

Wednesday, Feb. 29 from 9 a.m.–noon

Are you and your Board ready to move beyond bequests? In this session, we’ll explore more complex types of planned gifts including charitable gift annuities and charitable trusts, and we’ll learn how partnering with allied professionals in the community can expand your planned giving program. We’ll dig into your donor base to identify potential planned giving donors and learn to match particular gift options with the needs of your donors. This course is designed as a companion course to the session, Planned Giving: The Basics.

Instructor: Maureen Mahoney Hill, CFRE

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online) OR $115 ($100 if paid online) for both classes
Financial Wellness Package
You asked, and we listened. How do you know the right level of cash reserves? How can you create financial reports that are efficient, understandable, and help your Board members focus on what’s important for them? Is your financial model sustainable?

The Bayer Center has looked at all of these issues and more to come up with a Financial Wellness Package for management and governance. A full Package will provide your nonprofit with any or all of:

- A financial assessment that looks at key indicators and evaluates whether you are at financial risk
- An analysis of financial performance that considers current performance along with trends over time
- A customized benchmarking study using the Bayer Center’s database of over 240,000 organizations to compare you to any grouping of other nonprofits based on size, type, and location and give you the information you need to finally set meaningful and realistic financial goals
- A colorful and simple Financial Dashboard built around the questions that are important to you so management and Board members can assess financial performance at a glance
- A set of targeted questions to help Board members identify the information they need to oversee financial performance
- A presentation and training for the Board to use and understand the financial assessment and the Wellness Package tools

Contact the Bayer Center’s Associate Director, Scott Leff, at 412-397-6006 to set up an appointment to learn more about how the Financial Wellness Package can enhance your organization’s financial management and governance.

Selecting an Auditor

Friday, May 11 from 9–11 a.m.

What level of customer service should you expect from your auditor? This session will provide that answer, and many others, from the auditors themselves. Please join us as we convene several local accounting experts to candidly discuss selecting an auditor, the audit process, and strategies on maximizing the auditor-client relationship. This is one class where you’re sure to recoup your investment.

Instructor: Garrett Cooper, Bayer Center; panelists TBA

Fee: $65 ($55 if paid online)
Today more than ever nonprofits need to use technology wisely to stay competitive, prove effectiveness and communicate with constituents. The Bayer Center’s tech consultants have a broad and deep knowledge of the technology issues challenging nonprofits. Whether in your office or in our classroom, we speak English, not Geek, so that you can understand the entire process. If you need a new website, can’t figure out what fundraising software to buy, want your own database, or just feel like chilling out at Access Camp, you’ll find that our support is always real, never virtual.

Some of the ways we assist organizations are:

- Assessing the state of technology being used and helping to prioritize improvements
- Developing technology plans to enhance long-term impact
- Creating social media plans and strategies
- Building and improving databases that track key organizational information
- Providing custom training on software applications at the Bayer Center or on-site
- Planning and developing websites
- Supporting sound technology decisions – projects have included: software selection, vendor RFP development and selection, policy and procedure development, development of staff job descriptions, and hiring of IT staff

Writing for the Web and Social Media
Thursday, Feb. 23 from 9 a.m.–4 p.m.
Writing content for your website or social media channels is very different from other types of communications, in large part due to the way people read online. Most of your written materials must be altered for use on a web page or social media site in order to make them readable and usable. In this class, learn how to improve your written website and social media content, increase your sites’ usability, and leverage your website and social media as communication tools.

Instructor: Cindy Leonard, Bayer Center
Fee: $125 ($115 if paid by Feb. 2)

Powering Up Your Donor Database
Thursday, March 8 from 9 a.m.–noon
This interactive workshop will lay out manageable steps for moving from database management to database marketing. We’ll cover what to put in and what to pull out of your database. We’ll map out action plans for real-life scenarios. Also, you’ll take away the nine questions that will start your database analysis. Get more out of your fundraising records through creative, insightful analysis.

Presentation Visuals that Work
Thursday and Friday March 1–2 from 10–11 a.m.
Bullets are not only dangerous in guns. Although your presence and preparation make a huge impact on the success of a presentation’s ability to inform and persuade, bad visuals can undermine your message. In fact, PowerPoint itself may have taught us bad habits. This class will help you create visuals that will make your facts, stories and ideas stick with your audience.

Instructor: Jeff Forster, Bayer Center
Fee: $40

Beginning Web Design with Wordpress
Wednesday, March 14 from 9 a.m.–4 p.m.
Are you a website novice who needs to know how to design a basic website that works? Wordpress is a website content management system that is great for building and managing websites. This session is for beginners. Nonprofit staff with no previous web design experience and web design staff who want to learn Wordpress are welcome.

Instructor: Cindy Leonard, Bayer Center
Fee: $125 ($115 if paid online)
Minimizing Risk Via Social Media Policies

Wednesday and Thursday March 21–22 from 10–11 a.m.

Social media is a hot topic in nonprofits. It provides real-time communication among your staff, volunteers, consumers, clients, students, and constituents. Without social media policies, however, anyone might speak on your organization’s behalf, potentially opening up your nonprofit to liability. In this class, the key components of a social media HR policy will be explained. In addition, you’ll learn how risk management and insurance policies for nonprofits can help protect the organization as well as cover potential liabilities caused by social media. Various types of insurance options for nonprofits that address social media will be discussed and explained as well as discussion on common mistakes that can lead to a claim. Online resources and examples of social media policies and insurance policies will be shared.

Instructors: Todd Whiteman, Enscoe Long Insurance Group; Dave Tinker, CFRE, ACHIEVA

Fee: $40

Choosing or Changing Your Fundraising Software

Tuesday, April 10 from 9–11 a.m.

Don’t make a mistake! Choose fundraising software that’s right for your organization. We help you figure out what you really need and what you can do without. Then we point you in a direction that won’t break the bank or your database.

Instructor: Jeff Forster, Bayer Center

Fee: $40 ($30 if paid online)

Choosing Social Media Tools

Thursday and Friday, April 19–20 from 1–2 p.m.

You know you want to use social media to reach your constituents but aren’t sure what tools to choose. What is best for your organization’s style? How do you reach your intended audience? How do you choose tools that will be effective but that you can manage given the staff and time you have? In this class, we’ll discuss the various types of social media tools, including the pros and cons of each category. You’ll get to practice those skills in the “Social Media Game,” a fun learning exercise designed to help you think about the trade-offs among time, intent, content, and manageability when it comes to social media tools.

Instructor: Cindy Leonard, Bayer Center

Fee: $40

Video Success for Nonprofits

Now as the region’s only university-based center for nonprofit governance best practices, we’ve rolled our governance work into a comprehensive suite of complementary services:

BoardsWork!

Working with Boards has always been part of what we do at the Bayer Center. Whether…

- Enhancing technical skills
- Sharpening strategic thinking
- Smoothing succession planning
- Coaching on Board/staff roles, responsibilities and relations
- Streamlining policies
- Honing bylaws
- Increasing fundraising revenues
- Formatting supervision, compensation, and retention of the executive director

Promoting good governance is core to our effectiveness and results. As always, we are focused on the practical and the appropriate. BoardsWork! is designed to be beneficial without being burdensome. Smaller organizations will value its ease of implementation. Larger organizations will value the depth of experience and knowledge we bring to the table. And all will value the customized attention that tailors BoardsWork! to the specific needs and mission of each individual client organization.

BoardsWork! for Organizations

Organizations committed to governance excellence will have the opportunity to participate in the BoardsWork! Awards Program of training, consulting and coaching. Those organizations completing the program’s skills-building and education activities will receive the BoardsWork! Award to display as a symbol of their commitment to effective governance. In addition, they’ll be eligible for a Board matching program for the recruitment of new Board members. Plus, all BoardsWork! Awardees will be publicly acknowledged for their achievement by the Bayer Center.

BoardsWork! for Businesses

BoardsWork! offers a corporate program to train business managers and executives on how to be effective and responsible nonprofit Board members. Not only does this program provide new resources for nonprofits seeking more effective Boards, but it enhances the company’s Corporate Social Responsibility profile and contributes to employee recruitment and retention. Participants in the corporate program also will benefit from follow-up services of targeted Board matching and ongoing coaching support.

BUT WAIT! THERE’S MORE...

Executive Coaching

In the Calls to Action from “Daring to Lead 2011: A National Study of Nonprofit Executive Leadership” by CompassPoint Nonprofit Services and the Meyer Foundation, the authors encourage:

“Increased support for and utilization of executive coaching, which stands out as a professional development activity that executives say is highly effective…”

At the Bayer Center, coaching has always gone hand in hand with our consulting services. When we work with organizations, our focus tends to be as much on coaching you toward finding solutions to your own challenges as it is about providing answers. Whether you are an individual or an organization, we believe in your wisdom and bringing it out through coaching.

Now we are taking our coaching to a new level. Associate Director, Scott Leff, has gone through formal coaching training to become a Professional Coach, and along with experienced coaches in our ESC program, we are offering both executive and organizational coaching as another Bayer Center service. Please call Scott at 412-397-6006 to learn more about how coaching can fit into your personal and organizational development.

According to the “Daring to Lead” study, 70 percent of nonprofit executives feel loneliness at the top….

You don’t have to be lonely anymore.

Strong Boards build strong nonprofits; BoardsWork! builds strong Boards.

We look forward to seeing you in BoardsWork! soon.

Please call Lulu Orr at 412-397-6012 to learn more!
Letter From the Associate Director

I completed formal training last year to qualify as a Professional Coach. I’m not talking about sports here. I spent many happy years coaching my sons’ soccer and baseball teams, and I can assure you, I was anything but a professional sports coach. No, I’m talking about Executive Coaching, or what you might call… Life Coaching.

Eeuhhh!!! (That was me shuddering.) Let me tell you, it’s really, really painful for this ex-banker, analytical hard case to utter those words – Life Coach. But I said it, and I am. A trained Executive (Life) Coach.

Let me give you an idea of why this is so hard for me. During our first coaching class at the start of six months of rigorous education and practice, we were asked to talk honestly about our expectations and feelings. So I honestly said that I was very skeptical, and that if things got too touchy-feely, I was out of there. From that day forward, the class joke became continual snickering about whether a given technique or method or principle would be “too woo-woo for Scott.”

Compound that problem with my need for explanations. You can teach me all the methodologies, you can fill me with all the best practices and conventional wisdom, but if you can’t hand me the theoretical underpinnings that validate those things… Well, let’s just say I’m not real good with “just because.”

Now flash forward a few months. I’m at the International Coach Federation’s annual conference. There’s a session on coaching research. It’s being given by a Ph.D. who’s been studying this subject for years and has recently been hired by Google to develop their corporate-wide internal coaching program. This is what I’ve been looking for! Over the next three hours, he imparts to us the two major findings of all coaching research:

1. Coaching works.
2. Nobody knows why!

Then I come home, and an Executive Director coaching client says to me at the end of our fifth session, “Thank you. You’re watching a life change right before your very eyes.” Wow! Coaching works. And I don’t have to know why.

Maybe it’s thinking aloud, maybe it’s being pushed into new perspectives, maybe it’s as simple as just having someone to talk to… but, coaching works. So who cares why?

I don’t know why my cell phone works, but I’m happy that I can call my wife from wherever I am. Coaching works, and sometimes it’s okay to just go with the magic. Besides, you work in nonprofits, so you’re already a champion of lost causes. You know that good results can happen even in the unlikeliest of circumstances… and you’re a pretty likely circumstance.

So take it from the skeptic. You should give coaching a try.

Associate Director
